- b. If the original loan was taken out under the "Magaang Pabahay" Program

Thus, the consolidated loan shall consist of the additional loan and the outstanding balance of the original loan as of the date of the additional loan's final release. It shall be charged the corresponding interest rate provided in these guidelines.

14.5. For consolidated loans, the borrower shall continue paying the original amortization until such time that the additional loan is completely released. However, upon full release of the additional loan, the new amortization shall be based on the consolidated loan as provided for in Section 14.4 hereof.

14.6. Inclusive of the value of improvements to be introduced, the loan-to-appraisal value ratio shall not exceed the corresponding rate stipulated in Section 4.2.1 hereof.

14.7. The consolidated loan shall be charged with the corresponding interest rate provided for in Section 5 of these guidelines.

14.8. The additional/consolidated loan shall have a loan term in accordance with the provisions stipulated in Section 6 hereof.

14.9. The additional loan shall be secured by the same collateral as that of the original housing loan. The borrower shall execute an Addendum to the First Real Estate Mortgage on the subject property to fully cover the payment of the additional/consolidated loan as stipulated in the corresponding loan agreement and promissory note of the borrower.

For a CTS account originally taken out under the "Magaang Pabahay" Program, the consolidated loan shall be secured by a First Real Estate Mortgage on the subject property to fully cover the payment of the obligation as stipulated in the corresponding promissory note of the borrower. In connection thereto, the borrower shall pay for the unpaid monthly payments that would cover the expenses to be incurred in the conversion of the CTS to REM. The consideration of the Deed of Absolute Sale shall be the contract price appearing in the CTS, while that of the Loan and Mortgage Agreement shall be the consolidated loan amount.

14.10. The member shall be charged with fees as provided for in Section 12 hereof.

14.11. A member may only avail of the additional loan once during his loan term.

15. EFFECTS OF MEMBERSHIP TERMINATION ON AN OUTSTANDING HOUSING LOAN

15.1. Application of Member's TAV

A member whose housing loan is taken out under this Circular shall not be allowed to withdraw his TAV if he has an outstanding housing loan with Pag-IBIG Fund as of the date of membership/savings withdrawal. He shall be given the following options:

15.1.1. Pay off the outstanding housing loan balance and withdraw his accumulated savings;

15.1.2. Continue amortizing the loan until it is fully paid, provided that the account is updated. The member can withdraw his accumulated savings only upon full settlement of his loan obligation; or 15.1.3. Apply the accumulated savings to the outstanding loan balance.

Meanwhile, withdrawal of TAV for a member whose account was taken out under earlier Pag-IBIG Fund housing programs shall be governed by the guidelines prevailing at the time of loan takeout.

15.1.4. For Accounts released from 1 March 1999 up to 8 November 2001 (taken out under HDMF Circular Nos. 171 and 178)

In case of membership termination due to membership maturity, permanent departure from the country, retirement, total disability or insanity, Pag-IBIG Fund shall effect automatic application of the member's TAV to the outstanding housing loan balance, regardless if the account is updated or in arrears.

15.1.5. For Accounts released from 9 November 2001 to 19 July 2004 (taken out under HDMF Circular Nos. 189, 189-A, and 189-B)

Upon membership termination on the grounds of membership maturity, permanent departure from the country, retirement, total disability or insanity, Pag-IBIG Fund shall automatically apply the member's total accumulated savings to his outstanding housing loan, only if the account is in arrears.

In all cases, should there be any unpaid loan balance after the member's total savings have been offset against the loan, Pag-IBIG Fund shall require the borrower to pay the balance either in full, or under a revised amortization scheme, for a period not longer than the remaining term of the loan. Should the borrower opt for the latter, he shall be required to pay his monthly membership contributions until the loan obligation is fully settled, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the loan agreement.

15.2. Application of Insurance Proceeds

In the event of death, Pag-IBIG Fund shall apply the proceeds of the member's mortgage redemption insurance (MRI) to his outstanding housing loan balance, and the excess, if any, shall be paid to the member's designated beneficiaries.

In case the insurance proceeds shall not be sufficient to pay the member's housing loan balance fully, the Fund shall offset the remaining amount against the member's TAV. Should the member's TAV still not suffice, the Fund shall require the member's heirs/beneficiaries to settle any remaining balance in full or under a revised amortization scheme for a period not longer than the remaining term of the loan.
