

Alexander Hilario G. Aguilar

Deputy Chief Executive Officer

Member Services Cluster

Home Development Mutual Fund (Pag-IBIG Fund)

Alexander Hilario G. Aguilar was a labor sector leader for almost two (2) decades and has held significant positions in the labor sector organizations both here and abroad.

He has occupied critical positions in the government sector, prior to his current work.

With the wellbeing of workers always in mind, Mr. Aguilar's focus is to ensure that Pag-IBIG Fund continues and improves the means by which it provides its services and benefits to members, with the ultimate goal of uplifting each Filipino worker's life.

He has been with the Pag-IBIG Fund for over 15 years having served first as a member of its Board of Trustees for nine years and then, as its Senior Vice President for Member Services for six years, prior to his current designation.

Prior to his work with Pag-IBIG Fund, he has had the below extensive professional experience:

1. Board Member of the Technical Education and Skills Development Authority (TESDA), from 1996 to 2001;
2. Chairperson of the Asia-Pacific Youth Committee, International Confederation of Free Trade Unions, from 1998 to 2003
3. Vice Chairperson, World Youth Committee, International Confederation of Free Trade Unions, from 1999 to 2003;
4. Assistant General Secretary and Spokesperson, Trade Union Congress of the Philippines (TUCP), from 1994 to 2010
5. Director/Trustee of the TUCP Workers College Foundation, Inc. from 1997 to 2010;

6. Member of the Executive Committee, Tripartite Industrial Peace Council (TIPC), Department of Labor and Employment from 1999 to 2010

Mr. Aguilar, or Alex, to his friends, also cooks - paella being his specialty. He has three (3) wonderful children.
