

Pag-IBIG Fund sponsors card making contest for children of OFWs

The Pag-IBIG Fund International Operations Group (PIOG), headed by Amado I. Dizon, Vice President for Internal Operations, attended the card making contest last February 9. The activity was organized by the Kabalikatang Overseas Filipino Workers (OFWs), Inc. and the Kapisanan ng Migranteng Pilipino (KAMPI) and was participated in by the children of OFWs. It was held at the Overseas Workers Welfare Administration's (OWWA) auditorium. Pag-IBIG was one of the event sponsors.

With the theme "Malayo ka man at wala sa tabi ko, mahal kita kasi mahal mo ako", the card-making competition was participated in by a total of 53 children of OFWs, who competed in the Children (7-12 years old) and Teen categories (13-16 years old). The art contest aims to showcase the talents and artistry of the participants and to help them express their love for their OFW- parents on Valentine's Day.

The winning entries were put on display at the PIOG office at the 6th floor of the Pag-IBIG Makati Branch office recently. Photo shows VP Dizon (extreme left) with (l-r) Division Chief III for Marketing and Enforcement of PIOG Sally C. Banal, OIC-Department Manager III for Pag-IBIG OFW Member Services Ramona Rosette T. Ignacio, iREMIT Assistant Vice President for Marketing Global Sales and Marketing Cristina Castillejos, Pag-IBIG Vice President for NCR South Provident Operations Erlinda M. Francisco, KAMPI Program Director for Welfare Services Lizette Sandalo and KAMPI President Luther Calderon.