Pag-IBIG Fund partners with LTFRB for latter's employee housing

Pag-IBIG Fund and the Land Transportation Franchising and Regulatory Board (LTFRB) joined forces for the housing project that will benefit LTFRB employees. Pag-IBIG Chief Executive Officer (CEO) Acmad Rizaldy P. Moti (2nd from left) and LTFRB Chairman Atty. Martin B. Delgra III (2nd from right) signed the Memorandum of Understanding at the launch of BALAI Filipino (Building Adequate, Livable, Affordable, and Inclusive Filipino Communities) program. They were joined by honorary witnesses, Chairperson of Housing and Urban Development Coordinating Council (HUDCC) and Pag-IBIG Board of Trustees Eduardo D. del Rosario (3rd from left) and HUDCC Secretary General Atty. Falconi V. Millar (3rd from right), and institutional witnesses Pag-IBIG Deputy CEO Marilene C. Acosta (leftmost) and LTFRB Board Member Atty. Aileen Lourdes A. Lizada (rightmost). “Pag-IBIG partners with various employers, including government agencies, as our response to President Rodrigo Roa Duterte’s directive to help Filipino workers achieve their dream of homeownership. We support Secretary del Rosario’s BALAI Filipino program,” Mr. Moti said. (END)
