

Photo Release

Pag-IBIG Fund CEO assures housing and real estate partners of agency's sustainability. Pag-IBIG Fund Chief Executive Officer Acmad Rizaldy P. Moti addresses more than 200 housing and real estate partners at the recently-concluded 8th national convention of the Organization of Socialized and Economic Housing Developers, Inc. (OSHDP). He presented Pag-IBIG's unprecedented feats that have made it more bankable and sustainable as a housing financial institution: 17.39 million members to date, P463.66 Billion assets, P32.8 Billion members' savings, P28.8 Billion housing loans to 36,139 members, 90.2% collection efficiency, 124 branches nationwide, and 23 posts overseas. "Pag-IBIG Fund is more on sustainability than on profitability," Mr. Moti told the audience as he invited them to do more business with Pag-IBIG by giving "more quality accounts" to help provide decent and affordable homes to low-income groups in support of President Rodrigo Roa Duterte's pro-poor agenda and Housing and Urban Development Coordinating Council (HUDCC) Chairperson Eduardo D. Del Rosario's BALAI Filipino program. (END)