Pag-IBIG Fund and Danggagan LGU provide housing for teachers and town employees. Pag-IBIG Fund recently tied up with the local government unit (LGU) of Danggagan, Bukidnon for the construction of 286 residential units for teachers and local employees, in support of President Rodrigo R. Duterte's priority thrusts. In this photo, Pag-IBIG Fund Acting Senior Vice President Benjamin R. Felix (3rd from left), representing Pag-IBIG Board of Trustees Chair Secretary Leoncio B. Evasco, Jr. and Pag-IBIG Chief Executive Officer (CEO) Acmad Rizaldy P. Moti, poses with Matefe G. Jamero (4th from left), one of the beneficiaries of the Sto. Niño Heights Subdivision project in Danggagan, Bukidnon. Flanking them are (from left): Danggagan Vice Mayor Edilberto F. Ayuban, Telow Brothers, Inc. President Engr. Quirino U. Telow, Jr., Pag-IBIG Institutional Housing Department Manager Nanette Gerarda T. Abilay, Pag-IBIG Cagayan de Oro Housing Business Center Manager Reynaldo P. Cue, and Telow Brothers Inc. Vice President Dr. Jerry U. Telow. Secretary Evasco stressed in a statement that government housing is geared at building not just houses but also communities.
